Public Forum on the
STATE OF THE ECONOMY

Monday, October 2, 2017 @ 7:00pm
Rivers West 105A

James Hamilton – Featured Speaker
Macroeconomist and Time Series Econometrician, University of California, San Diego
“The Federal Reserve and Quantitative Easing: What Did It Accomplish?”

James Butkiewicz
Chair, University of Delaware, Department of Economics
“Trade Issues Facing the United States”

Randall Parker
Macroeconomist, East Carolina University
“99 Months and Counting: Is a Recession Near?”

Please join us for a frank and open discussion of the current and future course of our economy. Open to the public.

This event has been generously funded by a grant from the Charles Koch Foundation